CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Each candidate will receive space in the Spring edition of the WEAnews for their candidate statement and head-shot (candidates typically use their current school photo if available). There is a 60-word limit for the candidate statement. Anything over 60 words will be omitted. There is no charge to have this information printed in WEAnews. You must provide the information request below, and a camera-ready photo of yourself by February 26, 2021. Once WEA receives your information, you will be sent a confirmation email. Please don't assume that WEA is in possession of your photo and statement until you receive a confirmation email.

If you would like additional information included, please see the Political Advertising Rate Sheet for advertising rates and dimensions.
