Prorated Dues

WEA Bylaws allow for proration of state dues for any person joining as an active member after November 15 (unless they are needing legal representation).

NEA Bylaws allow for proration of national dues for any person who:

1. Joins as an Active member after November 15 (unless needing legal representation).
2. Becomes eligible for Active membership after the commencement of the membership year (e.g., student teacher begins teaching during the second semester).
3. Returns to professional educational employment from a limited leave of absence.

Active Professional Substitute, Active ESP Substitute, and Active Contingent (Adjunct) Faculty dues are not prorated.
